January 17, 2010 marks the 117th anniversary of the 1983 overthrow of the Hawaiian Kingdom. Queen Lili'uokalani relinquished her throne, turning her authority over to the president of the United States in order to avoid any bloodshed. Queen Lili'uokalani spent the remainder of her life being steadfast, 'onipa'a, in her efforts to restore the Kingdom of Hawai'i, and the rights of her people. We remember her today for her legacy of unwavering love of her people and her beloved country.

Sponsored by Native Hawaiian Advisory Council, Pu'u honua Society, Office of Hawaiian Affairs and Native Books/Na Mea Hawai'i. For any additional information call Ho'oipo Pa, 808-430-7333
